

Gordon Naughton

Tactive

Gordon Naughton is an experienced banker, accountant, corporate financier, and strategy consultant with over 20 years of business experience.

Gordon is the chair of Chartered Accountancy Ireland Interim Managers. He is also an advisor for a university accelerator programme, and was a recent speaker about grant-aid at the national sustainability conference at the RDS, in addition to presentations to the SFA & IBEC. Gordon is passionate about sustainability and was interviewed as part of the Chartered Accountancy Ireland “Ask the expert” series.

Gordon started his career as an accountant with PwC and is a Fellow of Chartered Accountancy (ACA). Gordon then worked with AIB in business and corporate banking, before moving to Deloitte corporate finance.

Gordon held senior project management and transformative strategy roles immediately before establishing Tactive in 2020.

Areas of Expertise

- Priming and Business Expansion Grants.
- MFI Applications and post sanctioning mentoring.
- Finance Clinics.
- Business Plans for Leader and Enterprise Awards.
- Agile Funding.
- Export Development Consultancy.
- For private clients, Tactive sources growth finance in addition to developing business plans, and financial models in addition to CEO and strategic advisory services.

Experience to Date (sample reference projects)

Tactive has completed over 100 Priming and Business expansion grants in addition to over 50 MFI applications, where the overall success rate has been extremely high.

In cases we have combined grant funding with MFI/loan finance resulting in minimal initial outlay for clients.