

John Dempsey

---

Dempsey Professional Services Limited

John has worked extensively in business planning; financial planning; financial management matters as they relate to start-ups; emerging and mature businesses within the SME sector. John has demonstrated a capacity to listen to people who own, run businesses and attempt to advise and guide on the implementation of user friendly solutions.

Typical of some areas that John covers include helping businesses to cost and price their goods/services effectively; using and understanding financial data to better manage their businesses; help businesses identify their financial needs and potential sources of finance.