

Mona Wheatley

Accounting and Training Services

Mona Wheatley is a business consultant with many years' experience working with start-ups and established businesses. She is a graduate of the Irish Institute of Training and Development, and an accredited Trainer in Sage and Thesaurus as well as in all basic manual book keeping systems and business procedures.

Mona combines her training qualifications with her primary business degree from UCD. She holds a diploma in Business and Executive Coaching and an IPASS certificate in Payroll. Her qualifications together with years of valuable experience enable her to offer a complete mentoring and training package within the SME sector, supporting clients with business advice as well as sound financial and administrative systems to help the business run smoothly and grow.
