The “Go North” Seminar will give businesses an introduction to doing business in Northern Ireland, our closest export market.

With a population of 1.8 million people, Northern Ireland is a small but attractive market for many Irish businesses. Last year, over €1.1 billion of products and services were sold by Irish businesses to customers in Northern Ireland and cross-border sales have increased significantly in the last few years.

The Going North Initiative aims to help businesses in County Mayo and Roscommon to explore and target new business opportunities in Northern Ireland.

The Going North Initiative is funded by InterTradeIreland and the LEOs in Mayo and Roscommon.
