

Happy Birthday

BUSINESS BOOTCAMP

9th Nov 2017

So you did it, you have survived your first year in business!

Congratulations!

We really hope that you have taken some time out to celebrate.

Now, it's time to evaluate and really ask yourself:

- How WAS that year?
- Did you make your sales targets?
- Are you reaching your business goals on time and on budget?
- Are you managing your time effectively?
- Does YOUR daily life look the way you want it to?

If it is all working out for you, well done! If not, what next?

Either way, there is always room for development and improvement.

How can you make your business and your life better this year?
